About RIOT

RIOT seeks to promote and enhance the partnership that exist between law enforcement and private industry while pursuing a collaborative investigative strategy in criminal investigations. We accomplish our mission by hosting the annual National Law Enforcement and Corporate Crimes Convention (N-LECCC) in destination locations across the State of Texas.

About N-LECCC

The RIOT/N-LECCC Convention has earned the reputation as the most prestigious law enforcement and corporate security training convention offered in the United States. We maintain this reputation due to the partnerships we've established with our loyal attendees and tremendous sponsors. RIOT strives to provide attendees valuable training at an exceptional venue that promotes and develops relationships between law enforcement and corporate security. RIOT is well known for their themed convention swag along with their inspirational keynote speakers. Past keynote speakers include former Milwaukee County Sheriff David Clarke, former Secret Service Agent Clint Hill, Lieutenant Colonel (Ret) Robert Darling, Mark "Oz" Geist, U.S. Representative Louie Gohmert, U.S. Representative Clay Higgins, Lieutenant Colonel (Ret) Allen West and Retired FBI Special Agent Edmundo Mireles.

Attendee Profile

The RIOT 2022 National Law Enforcement and Corporate Crimes Convention (N-LECCC) was a tremendous success, with attendees from 22 states and over 120 different law enforcement agencies. Our continued success is attributable to our devoted attendees, super sponsors, collaborative training and networking events.

The seal of the Robbery Investigators of Texas is a circular emblem. It features a central map of Texas with a white outline. The map is set against a background of a blue sky with white clouds and a red ground. The words "ROBBERY INVESTIGATORS OF TEXAS" are written in a circular path around the map. At the bottom of the seal, it says "EST. 2012".
